JUSTICE, EQUITY, DIVERSITY & INCLUSION (JEDI) TRAINING
A series for Homewood Teaching Assistants
Register Here by September 17

Facilitated by Ashley E. Cureton, Ph.D., MSW
Assistant Professor, University of Michigan - Ann Arbor, School of Social Work & School of Education

Session 1:
Discussing Identity, Power & Privilege
Tuesday, September 21 | 10-11:30AM ET
This workshop explores how their intersectional identities are linked to power and privilege at individual, interpersonal, and institutional levels.

Facilitated by Megumi G. Hine, MS
Doctoral Candidate, Johns Hopkins University School of Education, Center for the Social Organization of Schools

Session 2:
Understanding the Impact of Oppression in the U.S.
Thursday, September 23 | 10-11:30AM ET
This workshop unpacks the historical context and ways in which racism, White supremacy, and other forms of discrimination operate in the U.S.

Facilitated by Lester J. Kern III, MSW
Doctoral Candidate & Lecturer, University of Chicago Crown Family School of Social Work, Policy & Practice

Session 3:
Creating an Inclusive Learning Environment
Tuesday, September 28 | 10-11:30AM ET
This workshop brainstorms strategies and resources for fostering an inclusive classroom through both the subject matter and teaching methods.

Facilitated by Ashley E. Cureton, Ph.D., MSW
Assistant Professor, University of Michigan - Ann Arbor, School of Social Work & School of Education

Virtual coffee breaks (optional) will be held on 9/23 and 9/30 from 1-2PM ET. Information on how to access these discussions will be given in the morning session. Discussions will be facilitated by Dr. Ashley E. Cureton.